Raiders Get Beat In State 85-73

The Appomattox Raiders got knocked out of the State Region III, Group AA tournament Thursday night by the Altavista Colts 85-73 in a game played at Appomattox High School. The Raiders gave Appomattox, the Blue Ridge District champions, a 15-7 lead for the second and appomattox finished the year with a very respectful 14-4 overall record.

Appomattox got off to a good lead before the Raiders got on the board with 5:21 left in the first quarter. The Buccaneers of Appomattox continued to roll along after a 15-2 first quarter when they outscored the Raiders, 33-22 in the second quarter for a 48-24 lead at the half. Alfred Holland was the big man for Appomattox with 15 points in the first half, coming mostly on long jump shots, along with Patrick Prem, who added 14 in that half.

Appomattox took over in the third quarter and outscored Altavista 28-17 and out the lead to 61-41, after three quarters. Winston Tanford and Ricky Garrett led the way with nine points each in that quarter as the team had 11 of 24 attempts from the floor. Appomattox took the top at the start of the fourth quarter for a score to make it 71-43 and that was the closest the Raiders got. A defense judge let Appomattox get three quick lay-ups for a 15 point lead and Appomattox came back to close the gap to nine points a couple of times and could come no closer.

Appomattox put four men in double figures with Alfred Holland taking honors with 23 points. He was followed by Richard Prem with 21 points, C. Holland and Patrick each had 12 points for Appomattox in the winning cause.

Winston Tanford led the Raiders with 20 points and he was followed in double figures also by Jennie McCoy and Ricky Garrett with 15 points each. Leon Robinson and Bruce Norcott had nine and eight, respectively.

Appomattox shot around 45% from the floor and hit 17 of 25 foul shots. Appomattox hit around 40% from the floor and hit 21 of 35 from the foul line. Appomattox had 34 goals to 26 for Appomattox. The rebounds were very even for both sides and Appomattox had more turnovers, mostly coming in the first half.

Gafford and McCoy Make All-Seminole Teams

Wayne Gafford, an Appomattox Raider senior, joined the Raiders in the All-District basketball team last year and Bobby McCoy, also a senior, made the second team. Both men were named to the first team of the All-Tournament Team.

Gafford, a 6-11 standout for Appomattox, all year led the District in scoring with a 20.2 average on 171 points and averaged almost seven rebounds per game. He was the recipient of Ricky Forrest of William Campbell in the voting.

McCoy, a 6-1 jumping jack, also from the Blue Ridge District averaged almost 13 rebounds per game and almost eight points per game.

Bruce Norcott, a 6-1 forward, made the honorable mention list. Norcott was one of the top performers for the Raiders this year.

Gafford and McCoy, who led the Raiders into the finals in the tournament made the first team for the All-Tournament squad. They were picked according to their performance during the tournament by the coaches. Gafford averaged 21 points in the tournament and McCoy 13 points and also did a big job rebounding for the Raiders. Norcott made the second team for the All-Tournament.

NEED EXPERTS

Ever since the ancient Chinese invented gunpowder, there has been a need for ammunition experts.

Today, an expert in ammunition must be familiar with a variety of shells, missiles and rockets as well as many different types of explosives. He must also know how and where to store them.

Training for such a job in the U. S. Army is accomplished at the Army's Missile and Munitions Center and School, Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Alabama. There, students attend an 11-week course in ammunition storage.

For more information about this and the more than 300 fields open to young men and women in today's modern Army, see SGT Zorn, your local Army recruiter. He's located at the Post Office Building in Lynchburg, Va. and he'll be glad to help you.

ALL ABOUT TROPICAL FISH

Tropical fish are an interesting addition to home or school as these youngsters from Appomattox Primary School have discovered. Mrs. Earl Lane (Lane's Acquarium) was the special speaker recently, explaining to the first graders the various kinds of fish found in their cafeteria-based acquarium and how they, too, can take up this fascinating hobby. Debate Club In Competition

Attention!

ACHS has a Debate Club! This is our first year as a Debate Club but we are looking for great things to happen. Our club, sponsored by Mrs. Edwina Covington, is traveling to Longwood this Saturday to compete in various events which include debating, poetry reading - a spelling event and a dramatic soliloquy. We really think this club has possibilities because we have some great young talents such as Carol Beamer, Lesley Lawhorn, Amanda Austin, Susan Oliver, David Smith, Ralph Hamlett, Mike Belter, and Julia Hesson.

After Longwood we hope to send our contestants to William Campbell High; and then we hope to send our debate team to the district debates at Altavista High.

All of us hope to bring back honors to ACHS.
